1. About Visa

Visa is a kind of official document or certificate of endorsement on your passport indicating that you are allowed to enter, leave and stay in a specific country for a specified period of time or permanently. It can be a separate certificate with a stamp marked on your passport. Visas are issued by the immigration authorities of a foreign country after checking and verifying all your credentials properly. Once, you get a visa means you are permitted to enter a country and stay there for a specific period of time. However, the permission received through visa is temporary and subject to approval from the immigration officer at the entry point.

3. Requirement in Brief

Most nations require the nationalities of other nation to obtain a visa prior to visiting the territory of their nation. Depending on the country and their visa policies, the application process may differ, however, they are similar in nature. Most countries need other nationalities to have a valid passport or travel document in order to qualify for the visa. In addition to passports, most countries need the applicants to either submit an invitation letter, proof of address, proof of sufficient funds, etc. to qualify for their visa. Based on the applicant's profile and specific visa requirements, he/she may need to submit additional documents.

Indian passport holders who wish to visit other countries are required to obtain a visa prior to their travel. The visa is a document that indicates the permissible period of stay, validity, restrictions, etc. While the visa norms of one country may differ from the other, Indian Passport holders need to provide the following documents/details to enter most countries:

- Visa application form - Most visas are issued to applicants after they have submitted the completed Visa application form along with the passport size photograph and other documents.
- Passport/travel documents - In order to visit other nations, Indians are required to either provide their passport or any other valid travel documents. Most countries need the passport to be valid for at least six months from the intended date of travel. Additionally, the passport must have sufficient blank pages for immigration stamping.
- Biometrics - Certain countries need Indian visitors to provide their biometric details such as fingerprints either prior to the arrival or at the immigration check.
- Invitation letter - Indian nationalities may require providing a letter of invitation while Applying for a Visa of few specific countries.
- Visa interview - Depending on the category of the visa, Indian nationalities are required to appear for the visa interview while applying for the visa of certain specific countries.
- Visa fee - Based on the applicant's visa requirement pertaining to stay period, entry scheme, etc. Indian visitors are required to pay a certain Visa fee as the processing fee. The visa depends on various factors such as the period of stay, entry scheme, etc.
